

D. Steve Boland
Chief Administrative Officer

D. Steve Boland is chief administrative officer for Bank of America, and is a member of the company's executive management team.

In this role, Boland oversees the delivery of the company's full range of capabilities for clients through its local markets organization including more than 90 market presidents and teams; Public Policy; Environmental, Social & Governance; Corporate & Internal Communications, External Communications, Global Sports Sponsorships, Corporate Security and other related functions.

Boland is also one of the vice chairs for the company's Global Diversity & Inclusion Council. He represents Bank of America as a member of the Executive Leadership Council (ELC), is on the Novant Health Foundation Board, the National Urban League Board of Trustees and the Greater Charlotte Cultural Trust Board.

Prior to his current role, Boland served as president of Retail Banking, responsible for the growth of the business serving 33 million U.S. mass market consumers. He initially joined the company in 1995 and previously oversaw the Community Bank and Consumer Lending.

Boland holds a degree in organizational studies from the School of Education and Social Policy from Northwestern University. In the course of his career, he has been recognized with several prestigious professional honors. These include being named to Black Enterprise Magazine's 2017 list of the Most Powerful Executives in Corporate America, 75 Most Powerful Blacks on Wall Street in 2011, and 75 Most Powerful African-Americans in Corporate America in 2005. Most recently, Boland was awarded with Bank of America's Black Executive Leadership Council Vanguard Award for being at the forefront of advocating, sponsoring, promoting and overall investing in black talent.